Dear

STAT
Thanks for your letter of 27 March 1976, relative to [REDACTED]. I appreciate your recommending him to me. At this juncture, we are still in the embryonic stages of our proposed graduate program in international relations and are in the process of developing only the broad outline.

STAT
After General Goodpastor's arrival we shall be working to develop the detailed approach, and at that time, may well find a need for the unique experience which [REDACTED] could bring.

Warm personal regards and thanks again for your letter.

Sincerely,

George M. Seignious, II

Dear George,

I have recently heard from my friend [] who is now retired in Charleston. I recall that his father was a General Officer in the Persian Gulf early in World War II. [] tells me that he is very much interested in achieving part-time association with your new program in international relations. I can testify most strongly to my very high regard for [] intelligence, ability, broad knowledge of foreign affairs, and gift of articulation. He should make a very stimulating lecturer.

With every good wish,

Faithfully,

Vernon A. Walters
